WELL DONE KPPS!
OUR OUTSTANDING SWIMMERS SHONE AT HANNA SHIELD SWIMMING CARNIVAL
What is happening at our School?

This Thursday, we will welcome our gorgeous pre-schoolers to our school, to commence our School Readiness Program. They will be coming every Thursday from 9:30 - 12:00, for the remainder of the term. They will also be taking part in our Book Character Parade next Thursday. We warmly welcome our new students and their families. If anyone could supply a slice or cake for tomorrow morning’s ‘Meet and Greet’ with the new families, it would be greatly appreciated.

Next Thursday is our Book Character Parade, in celebration of Book Week. We ask that all students arrive at school dressed as a character from a story book. The parade will commence at 11:30am, followed by reading of favourite books with staff, or any parents, grandparents, and special friends who would like to read their favourite book to a group of children. We also extend an invitation to all families to bring along some food and share a picnic lunch with their children at 12:30pm. This will be followed by a School Assembly at 2pm.

Yesterday 5 students from Kelly’s Plains Public School took part in the Hanna Shield. Caleb, Nicholas & Tom swam in 4 events, competing in the Senior and Junior 4x50m relay and the medley relay. They came second place in both Junior events. Bethany and Millie shone in the Senior events, both girls swimming 200m each.
Our school came third overall in the Boys Hanna Shield and our school was awarded the aggregate prize cup.
What an outstanding group of swimmers we have!
